

PROGRAM

A challenge for Switzerland: Achieving health for all in a changing world Health in Switzerland's foreign policy and international cooperation

8:45 – 9:30	Registration and Coffee
9:30 – 9:45	Welcome Speech Thomas Vogel, President of the Network Medicus Mundi Switzerland
Part 1: Health in the message on Switzerland's International Cooperation in 2017 - 2020
9:45 – 10:10	Switzerland: How to meet responsibilities in a changing environment by Ambassador Thomas Greminger, SDC
10:10 – 10:35	Development Policy, Health and the Money. A civil society health perspective on the “Message on Switzerland's International Cooperation in 2017 – 2020” (Input in German with simultaneous translations) by Martin Leschhorn Strelbel, MMS
10:35 – 11:15	Coffee Break
Part 2: SDGs and health
11:15 – 11:35	UNO Agenda 2030 for sustainable development: A milestone for radical transformation – or just all smoke and mirrors? (Input in German with simultaneous translations) by Thomas Schwarz, MMI
11:35 – 12:00	Health in all Policies and health in the SDGs by Nicole Valentine, WHO
12:00 – 12:30	Panel Discussion “Are we on the right track to health for all in a changing world?”
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch
Part 3: Achieving health for all - roles and involvement of civil society in the global South and North
14:00 – 14:25	Engaging with civil society through parallel-tracking By Glenn Laverack, WHO
14:25 – 14:45	Bridging between local engagement and global processes by Nonjabulo Mahlangu, CWGH Zimbabwe
15:00 – 16:00	Group A: What are the next steps for MMS advocacy work based on the message in Switzerland?	Group B: How have the MDGs influenced the programs/ projects of Swiss NGOs and our partner organisations and how to deal with the SDGs?	Group C: Change from the bottom – what is the role of international community to promote and support community participation in health through community mobilization and advocacy?
16:00 – 16:30	Presentation of the main findings and closure		