

Program

Young People as Actors in Sexual Health Love matters – We matter

- 8.45 am Registration and Coffee
9.15 am Welcome Speech by Carine Weiss, MMS

Part 1 – Young People as Actors for a Comprehensive Sexuality Education

- 9.20 am Poetry Slam by Margaret Daramola, Switzerland 9.25 am Sexual Pleasure: the Missing Link between Sexual Health and Sexual Rights
by Vithika Yadav, Love Matters India
9.45 am We are the Generation to End AIDS – But How? by Marlon Jost, Youth Against AIDS, Germany
10.05 am A Buddy for Life: How Peer-to-Peer Support can Improve ARV Adherence in Young People by Leeroy Lewis Sibanda, Million Memory Project Zimbabwe
(MMPZ), terres des hommes schweiz
10.25 am Q&A with Vithika Yadav, Marlon Jost and Leeroy Lewis Sibanda

10.55 – Coffee Break
11.15 am

Part 2 – Young People Lifting Taboos around Sexual Health by Changing Social Norms and Values

- 11.15 am Poetry Slam by Margaret Daramola
11.30 am Love Matters – Family Matters by Juan Francisco Ramirez Flores, Fondation
Vencer, Paraguay, supported by Swiss Red Cross
12.00 pm Challenge Society with Young Queer Activists, by Florian Vock, Swiss Aids Federation

12.30 – Lunch
1.30 pm

Part 3 – Youth Voices Count – How Young People Can Claim their Rights

- 1.30 pm Poetry Slam by Margaret Daramola
1.40 pm How a Youth Movement Can Change Swiss Politics by Samira Marti, member of the Swiss National Council
2.10 pm Let's Talk About Sex... Education by Noëmi Grütter, Sexual Health Switzerland and youth advocate
2.40 pm Love, Sexual Rights and Young People Panel Discussion

3.15 pm Closing Remarks
3.30 pm APERO

Moderated by Elisabeth Nash

The conference is organised by Medicus Mundi Switzerland and terres des hommes schweiz. The conference is part of a long-term cooperation agreement with the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC).