COLLECTING STORIES

„Our teacher explained us her very clear opinion: „ you can't take the responsibility for having an abortion.““

"When a man, without saying anything, invaded me, I would have been glad to have had more than just biological facts discussed at school."

"Our teacher was so nervous, he put the condom upside down on the banana in front of the whole class."

"My teacher didn't even dare to mention the clitoris while he explained the genitals in detail on a slide. So it wasn't until I was 21 that I learned that this was the only organ for pure pleasure."
