

PROGRAM

Teenage Pregnancy - How do We Address the Needs and Rights of Teenage Girls?

Wednesday, 18 May 2022

Round table

Teenage Pregnancy – Where do we stand today and what works in prevention

9:30	Welcome remark and introduction by Carine Weiss Medicus Mundi Switzerland
9:45	Preventing Teenage Pregnancies among Internally Displaced Persons in Cameroon by Lumumba Mukong Togho, Mission 21 Cameroon
10:10	A Comprehensive Life Course Approach towards Prevention in the Slums of Calcutta by Ananya Chatterjee, Calcutta Rescue incl. Q&amp;A
10.40	Leaving no teenage mother alone – supporting teenage mothers in Southern Africa – presentations of 2 short film interviews by Susanne Furler, terre des hommes schweiz
11.00	Prevention of teenage pregnancies from a gender-transformative perspective, expanding their social, economic and family opportunities from a rights-based approach in the communities of Santa Ana and Chalchuapa, El Salvador by Alex Escobar Swiss Red Cross, El Salvador
11:30	Plenary Discussion
12:15	Lunch